

WHO TO CALL WHEN YOU SEE A PROBLEM IN A STREAM

If you see a FISH KILL in your stream

Collect several dead fish and place them in a plastic ziploc storage bag. Place bag in refrigerator, not freezer.

Collect a water sample in sterile container and place in refrigerator.

Take temperature of water.

- Call:
- a) PA DEP at 570-826-2511,
 - b) PA Fish & Boat Commission at Northeast Regional Office 570-477-5717 or
 - c) BWA office at 570-839-1120.

If you see STORMWATER/EROSION OF SOIL entering a stream

Photograph or video event if you can.

- Call:
- a) Monroe County Conservation District - daytime only at 570-629-3060 or Pike County Conservation District - daytime only at 570-226-8220
 - b) Your Township or Borough Office
 - c) BWA office at 570-839-1120.

If you see someone filling what you believe to be a WETLAND

Take a color photograph or video if you can.

- Call:
- a) Monroe County Conservation District - daytime only at 570-629-3060 or Pike County Conservation District - daytime only at 570-226-8220,
 - b) Your Township or Borough office,
 - c) US Fish & Wildlife Service at 570-894-1275,
 - d) PA DEP at 570-826-2511
 - e) BWA office at 570-839-1120.

If you see what you believe is an ILLEGAL ACTIVITY ALONG THE STREAM

(cutting trees along a stream bank, machinery in stream).

Photograph or video event if you can.

- Call:
- a) Monroe County Conservation District - daytime only at 570-629-3060 or Pike County Conservation District - daytime only at 570-226-8220
 - b) Your Township or Borough office
 - c) PA Fish & Boat Commission at Northeast Regional Office 570-477-5717
 - d) BWA office at 570-839-1120.

If you see what you think is ILLEGAL DUMPING INTO STREAM

Record license number of vehicle.

- Call:
- a) Monroe County Waste Management Authority Police at 570-643-6100 extension #222 or #227 or email a complaint at <http://www.thewasteauthority.com/content/submit-complaint>
 - b) Your Township or Borough Police or State Police
 - c) PA Fish & Boat Commission at Northeast Regional Office 570-477-5717, or
 - d) BWA office at 570-839-1120.

If you think your STREAM IS CHANGING

(unusual green algae growth, smell, color amount of foam in water)

Collect a water sample in sterile container and place in refrigerator.

- Call:
- a) Monroe County Conservation District - daytime only at 570-629-3060 or Pike County Conservation District - daytime only at 570-226-8220,
 - b) PA Fish & Boat Commission at Northeast Regional Office 570-477-5717 or
 - c) BWA office at 570-839-1120.

If this is a sewer issue, call the Sewage Enforcement Officer in the municipality where the problem is found.